Coats,

According to the USM-129, we received this inmate via WRIT on 02/26/2009. He was not released from MDOC via parole until 08/27/2009 per the memo in the file.

Time spent on WRIT is not creditable toward a Federal sentence, and he was in service of the State sentence until 08/27/2009. The sentence computation is correct and no updates are required at this time.

Administrative Remedy: BP-8

Response

This is in response to your Request for Administrative Remedy, received in this office on December 20, 2020, wherein you contest your sentence computation and claim your release date is incorrect. You claim your release date should be July 1, 2021 as opposed to April 28, 2024. As relief, you request your release date be recalculated for a release date of July 1, 2021.

A review of this matter revealed you were arrested for Possession with intent to Distribute five (5) Grams or More of Cocaine Base on May 11, 2007, by Boone County Sheriff's Department. You were on parole with the Missouri Department of Corrections (MODOC) at the time. You were Paroled from MODOC on August 28, 2009.

On April 8, 2010, the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri Central Division, took your pleas of guilty on count two (2) Possession with Intent to Distribute 5 Grams or More of Cocaine Base. You were given two hundred twenty (220) months, which was later reduced on December 11, 2017, to one hundred seventy six (176) months. You were given credit from August 28, 2009, date released from Parole MODOC to April 7, 2010, the day before your federal sentence began on April 8, 2010.

Program Statement 5880.28, Sentence Computation Manual (CCCA of 1984), and Title 18 U.S.C. § 3585(b), preclude the application of credit for time spent in the service of another sentence. As you were sentenced by the state and given credit for all your time spent in custody you are not entitled to credit for any of this time under § 3585(b) toward your federal sentence.

Your computation with jail credit, good conduct time added, and First Step act has been certified to be correct from the Designation & Sentence Computation Center. Your release date is December 5, 2019, as long as you do not lose any more good conduct time.

Therefore, based on the above information, your Request for Administrative Remedy is for informational purposes only.
